

Taxpayers Cancel Expected Speech Monday Night

Speaker Nearly Outnumbers
Audience

The Lemon Grove Taxpayers Assn. Monday night had to cancel a scheduled speech because the speaker almost outnumbered his proposed audience.

Robert Sutton, principal of Lemon Grove Junior high school, had been scheduled as speaker.

When meeting time rolled around, those present included the organization's president, secretary, one committee chairman, the president's wife and three other ladies, plus one gentleman of the press.

President C. H. (Les) Benson surveyed the meager gathering and asked Sutton if he'd rather not bother speaking.

Sutton agreed that he'd rather not.

"I'm awfully sorry, and embarrassed," Benson said.

"Think nothing of it," Sutton replied. "This happens all the time at school board meetings."

And he left the taxpayers meeting, and attended the school board meeting which was underway a block down the street.

Benson, remarking that "it doesn't do any good to bawl out the people who are here for other people being absent," announced that he and representatives of the Swimming Pool Assn., the Youth Center and the Coordinating Council will meet next Monday night at Benson's home for a chat with County Supervisor David Bird in an attempt to figure out some future acquisition of recreational facilities for Lemon Grove.

He said too that the Taxpayers soon will begin a probe into possibilities on future government for Lemon Grove.

"We're going to have to take a stand in this matter," Benson said, "and we'd better be getting some information about it."

The meeting adjourned with a slightly higher attendance than it opened with, for another man and his wife came in during the 20-minute meeting.

School Budget Hearings to Close Soon

The Lemon Grove school district board of trustees is nearing the close of the 1960-61 budget hearings which will include raises for the district's personnel.

Byron Netzley, school superintendent, said that no additional information had been asked for by the board which indicated it had all the material needed to close the hearings, probably at the meeting May 23.

Included in the budget are raises of $27,300 for teachers; $4,072 for administrative employees, and $8,000 for non-certificated workers.

The board adopted a resolution commending Mrs. Hazel Schwalm who is retiring this year after 36 years of service with Lemon Grove schools.

Paul Reynolds, district business manager, said assessed valuation in the district might show a 15 percent increase, and that much of the increase would be from the College Grove shopping center which remains in the school district.

REZONING

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Re-zoning of two acres of land in the La Presa area from residential to business designation because of a planned drainage channel and freeway reservations, will come before the County Planning Commission Friday.

The land lies east of Elkton boulevard, north of Delrose avenue and south of Jamacha road. The petitioner is the Heron Corp. Adjacent land, already zoned commercial, will be used for parking, the application states.

'Peg' Lemmer — New Teachers' President

'Peg' Lemmer Named Teachers' President

Mrs. Margaret L. Lemmer, English teacher at Lemon Grove Junior High school, has been elected president of the California Teachers Association, Southern Section. She is the first educator from San Diego County schools, outside the city of San Diego, to hold this office. Currently serving CTA-SS, as vice president, Mrs. Lemmer also serves teachers as legislative contact for both national and state legislators from this area. She is completing three years as a member of the CTA-SS board of directors out of the Los Angeles headquarters.

Mrs. Lemmer becomes spokes- for approximately 57,000 teachers in Southern California. The Southern Section, made up of Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, Inyo, Ventura, Riverside, San Bernardino, Imperial, and San Diego counties, represents half the educators of the state.

Active for several years in teacher association work, "Peg" Lemmer is a past president of the San Diego County Teachers Association where she was active in the areas of salary, retirement, teacher education, legislation, curriculum, and public relations. She holds a life membership in the National Education Association, an honorary life membership in PTA, and is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma.

The DIMMER VIEW

by MAX GOODWIN

If a citizen is smart enough to be able to choose for himself the type of filter he wants on his cigarette he is called a thinking fellow.

He may sometime impair his status by lighting the wrong end of the cigarette, but the title is permanent.

Our position is that it doesn't even take a thinking fellow to acknowledge that we are getting too much state government today.

Top-heavy government doesn't provide freedoms, it usurps them!

As if we don't have enough agencies telling us what we may do, what we may not do, and how much it will cost us—the California general sessions of the Legislature during the past year have spawned 21 new agencies.

Let all thinking persons (whose cult is herewith broadened to include non-smokers, provided they know whether they prefer not to smoke filtered cigarettes or non-filtered ones) look over the attached list of brand-new state agencies for whose upkeep we will have to pay, keeping in mind that these agencies will invoke rules against us more often than for us.

As you may have guessed by now, cigarette smoking will have no bearing on the desirability, the necessity, nor the consideration of these agencies. We suggest that you pick up a pencil instead of a smoke, and shoot a hot letter to your legislator and let him know you are rebellious.

For your own edification, check off the new agencies you feel you could do without.

The new agencies:

- (1) Fair Employment Practices Commission and the Division of Fair Employment Practices;
- (2) Co-ordinator of Atomic Energy Development and Radiation Protection;
- (3) Consumer Counsel;
- (4) Economic Development Agency;
- (5) Golden Gate Authority;
- (6) Capitol Building and Planning Commission;
- (7) State Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training;
- (8) Committee to Encourage Selection, Performance and Publication of Music of Merit by Western Composers;
- (9) Fairs Allocations and Classification Committee;
- (10) Fish and Sea Food Advisory Board;
- (11) Lincoln Sesquicentennial Commission;
- (12) State Office of Planning;
- (13) Division of Recreation in Department of Natural Resources;
- (14) Collection agency licensing and regulation, California Advisory Board of Collection Agencies;
- (15) Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board;

Government Probe To be Renewed At Men's Club

The Lemon Grove Men's Club this Friday will start another phase of its probe into possibilities for future local government in the community.

Dr. Richard O. Bigger, co-ordinator of public administration for the Public Affairs Research Institute of San Diego State College, will address the men's club.

The institute is organized to conduct research on a non-profit basis into community and governmental problems of a public and/or administrative nature. It is staffed by members of the faculty of the college and operates under an advisory board appointed by the president of the college.

Also operating with the institute is a public administration "laboratory" with a specialized collection of research materials.

From these sources, Dr. Bigger is expected to conduct a series of two or more discussions at the men's club on Friday noons.

Friday the 13th? Keep Your Fingers Crossed All Day

If you're superstitious (and who among us is not?) you can rejoice.

This Friday the 13th is the last one of the year.

All you need to do this Friday is stay out of trouble and then you can relax until next year.

A bit of advice to the superstitious:

Don't walk under any ladders. Painters have an evil quirk in their brains on Friday the 13th. And keep your fingers crossed. Remember, the day is only 24 hours long (your fingers will become cramped, but you have all year in which to straighten them out).

Community Leaders To Discuss Forming Grove Town Council

Leaders of key organizations in Lemon Grove are to be invited to sit in on discussions at the Men's Club which may lead to the formation of a town council here similar to the highly successful La Jolla Town Council.

At last Friday's meeting of the club members discussed the previous week's session at which the executive manager of the La Jolla council outlined the makeup and function of that organization. Bailey Gallison, the council manager, told the club at that time that a similar organization could be set up here — and urged that this be done.

Men's Club members last Friday discussed such a possibility and decided to make a tentative move in that direction. At the conclusion of a series of talks scheduled under the aegis of the Public Affairs Research Institute of San Diego State College on governmental possibilities in the community, according to Club President Bill Davies, the town council plan will be investigated further.

In La Jolla, the town council is headed by a board of directors of 36 trustees elected from the council each year. The council itself is made up of individuals throughout the entire community. Organizations, as such, are not represented on the council, although specialized interests are represented by committees; the heads of these committees make up an "operations committee" which investigates problems and makes recommendations to the board of directors.

The board of directors holds public hearings and listens to all sides of community problems. Afterward, the directors vote for whatever course they feel the community should take on any specific matter. This, then, becomes the official position of the community in approaching governmental bodies such as the city council, county board of supervisors or state legislature.

Bird's Campaign As Supervisor Opens in District

David Bird, County Supervisor of the Second District, the district that includes Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, has begun his campaign for re-election.

It will be the sixth time he has stood for office since 1940. The election is June 7.

Bird started in politics in 1924 and has been a popular public servant since 1924 and a successful business man in his district since 1920. He started in politics as a National City council member in 1924 and served four terms during which he served six years as mayor of the city.

In previous campaigns, Bird has had little difficulty in facing reelection. In fact, two terms, he ran unopposed and he has served as chairman of the Board of Supervisors in San Diego County six times.

Last week, as he started his campaign rounds of businessmen and old acquaintances he said "I might be a couple of years older but I never felt better."

In serving his district for 19 years, Bird has earned a county-wide reputation for his work in developing an early county administration program, his advocacy of a public works department, his fights for modern sanitation, roads, parks and recreation areas, and his support of sound economic expenditures.

Bird's state-wide and national reputation is reflected by his recent election as vice president and chairman of the board of the National Association of County Officials.

Bird lives at 945 N. ave., National City, with his wife Margaret. His married son and two daughters and seven grandchildren all live in San Diego county. Bird, a former Navy service man, is active in veteran circles.

Swim Group Elects Board

The Carman Ranch Club Swimming Association, associated with the Carman Ranch Club, Inc., 2515 Sweetwater rd., Spring Valley, elected its first board of directors Thursday.

Max Yale, Mrs. Perry Erickson, Jess Dawson, Dr. George Howard and Mrs. Elda Carovano became the board and indicated that more emphasis would be placed on synchronized team swim activities.

Stanley Rose, who has been coach since the club was formed in 1957, resigned. The board will seek a replacement immediately.

Collapses on Walk In Front of Local Theater

Ambulance Takes Injured Man
To Hospital

Blood gushing from his arm, Robert Gibson of Encanto staggered across Imperial avenue in Lemon Grove Saturday evening and collapsed on the sidewalk in front of the Grove theater.

Sploches of blood marked the trail he had followed: across the two lanes of the street, onto the center island, joggly back into the street, back onto and across the center island and across the other two lanes, onto the sidewalk, through part of a circle, to a larger sploch on the sidewalk near the curb.

A crowd of excited passersby gathered.

Someone phoned for an ambulance. Somebody else phoned for the sheriff.

The ambulance and deputy sheriffs arrived.

Gibson was rushed to Grossmont Hospital, where doctors sewed up his gashed right arm.

Rumors of a terrific fight, of an attempted murder, of an attempted suicide were still when deputies made their report.

Gibson had been ejected from a nearby bar and in anger had smashed his fist through the window of his car.

He was treated at the hospital and released.

Kindergarten Registration Held this Week

Elementary schools in Lemon Grove became "kiddies' corrals" this week as the district held its annual kindergarten round-up. Registration for 1960-61 kindergarten students attracted nearly 500 potential pupils. The sign-up is open through Friday.

Held at Golden Avenue, Vista La Mesa, San Miguel, Monterey Heights, San Altos, and Mount Vernon schools, sign-ups included those children who will be four years, nine months old on or before September 1, 1960. To enter first grade, children must be 5 years, nine months old on September 1 of this year, according to state law.

Parents should register boys and girls at the school nearest their homes. Hours for registration are from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at most schools, with the exception of Mount Vernon, where hours are 10 to 12. Materials, including the parents' kindergarten handbook, are distributed at the time of registration. Those who missed registration should check with their schools for information and materials as soon as possible.

By Bob Turnbull

Mike McKee can't understand why Tommy Manville never won an Oscar for a supporting role! ... I'm getting just a mite tired of all this phony publicity, centering around Sandra Dee and her never-ending search for a husband. She's already picked out her mate. He's a 28-year-old medical doctor. She's planning on marrying him, raising a family of four and doing one or two pics annually. His name will go mercifully unstated. Secret, you know! and speaking of romantic secrets: Didja know that Life's cover gal, starlet Yvette Mimieux, is secretly married to an SC student? Have been since the turn of the year!

Unusual Teener

An unusual teenager is popular in Flickerville. She's 16-year-old Shelley Fabares, daughter of Donna Reed on her vidseries. Shelley, who like Sandy, wants four offspring plus career, has been acting since the tender age of nine. She isn't the least bit shy but she isn't egocentric, which seems to be "the thing" amongst today's younger thespians. She's very pretty, very talented and a very religious young lady that it highly respected by her close friends and older adults ... Crooner Bobby Rydell is excellent at doing imitations of famous personalities ... Former mousketeer Tommy Kirk had his car repossessed. Too many ticks ... Julie Reding sez "one's friends don't believe one makes as much as one claims one does, and the gov't doesn't believe one makes so little!"

"Misfits" Postponed

The filming of "The Misfits" has been postponed for one month as Marilyn Monroe, co-star in the picture, plans to take a vacation upon completion of her current "Let's Make Love" film at 20th. Other co-stars in "Fits" are Clark Gable and Montgomery Clift ... Conductor David Rose plans to tour the Orient during the summer months batoning an All-American concert ... I can't figure out why Annette Funicello is so popular with her platters. Everytime a deejay spins an Annette tune all I hear is her weak voice, echo chambers, loud music from a big ork and a choir backing her that resembles a coliseum reaction to a Ram touchdown. Such is life! Until tomorrow, Vaya Con Dios!

Bertha McVey Dies at 78

Funeral services for Mrs. Bertha McVey, 78, of 1115 Helix St., Spring Valley, were held Thursday at the Rogers Mortuary, San Diego. Burial was in Ft. Rosecrans National Cemetery. She died at her home Saturday after a long illness.

A native of Van Wert, Ohio, she had lived in Spring Valley since 1915, the McVey home being one of the first in the La Presa area. At one time Mrs. McVey was quite active in Eastern Star and Daughters of the Nile. She is survived by her husband, Steele McVey.

Once Over Lightly

by Don Wilson

Occasionally in these hurried times I long for the informality of the old corner grocery.

There you used to walk in with your grocery list and hand it to the man and he would amble around through the store, finding the items and loading them into a basket. Things on the high shelves had to be reached with a long pole that had a sort of hand at the top that would grasp the cans and boxes when you squeezed a lever at the bottom.

All the customer had to do was know what he wanted to buy. The grocer did all the rest.

And he used to give mother a sack of candy for the kiddies. Another symbol of this same era was the free lunch in the corner bar. By simply buying a beer or two, a man could lean against the bar and eat sandwiches and pickles and pretzels and crackers and half a dozen other things. A dime's worth of beer bought a good meal along with it.

And you used to be able to go into a delicatessen and fill yourself full of cheese just figuring out what kind you wanted to buy. The store man would be so anxious to please you that he would snip off little pieces of cheese and offer them as samples. You'd try a dozen or more pieces before you were sure what you wanted, then you'd buy a quarter's worth to eat at home.

About the only remaining vestige of this sort of thing is the pastry truck that cruises a route.

There, if you're lucky, you get a route man with that old time spirit.

We had such a pastry route man not long ago. He used to stop at our place and he would give Paula a donut or pastry occasionally when she seemed on the verge of cutting down on our consumption of the goodies.

And he used to keep a box of big donuts on the seat of his truck for dogs, like ours, which would go charging out at him as he got out of his truck. The driver used to toss Laddy a big donut and Laddy would gulp it down, then fawn all over him while the truck was parked there.

And Laddy either forgot the kindness by the next trip, or else he remembered it extremely well, because he always went charging out, barking, every time the truck stopped. And he always got a donut to calm him down.

One day, Paula was standing at the rear of the pastry truck talking to the driver and trying to decide what to buy. She glanced up toward the front and gasped.

There, sticking out the door, waving frantically, was Laddy's tail. Paula ran up to the front of the truck.

Laddy and our three cats were all in the front seat of the truck, eating donuts as fast as they could gulp them down. Paul shouted and they all ran.

The pastry man said: "Oh that's okay, lady," but he gave up his practice of carrying a box of donuts for the dogs.

As a matter of fact, he gave up the route a week or so later.

Watch your roses carefully. Don't over-spray them and don't spray when it doesn't seem to be necessary. But the moment you see any signs of mildew, rust or any insect infestation, use a regular two-purpose rose spray which checks fungus diseases and kills thrips and aphids at the same time.

Preventing trouble is more important than curing it after it is once established.

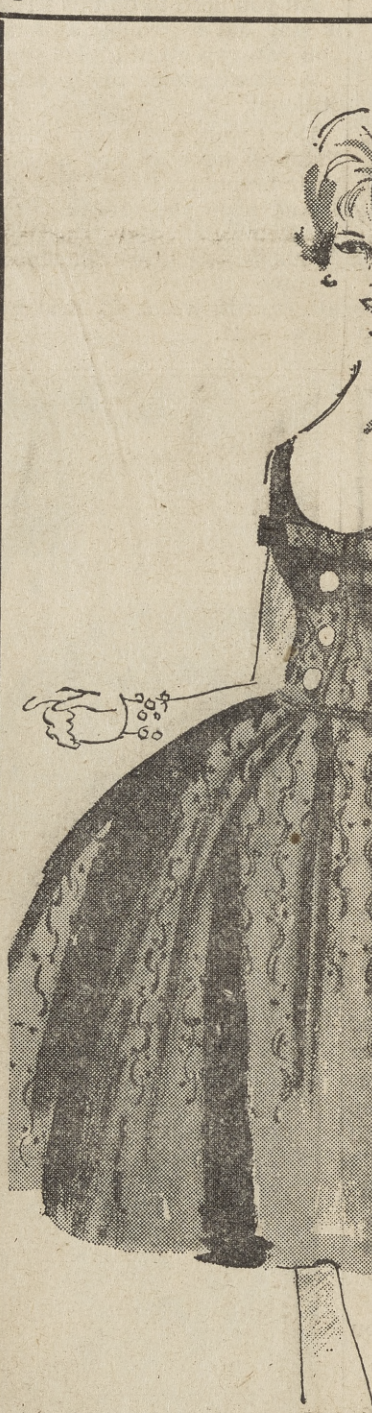

The same rule holds good with regard to keeping up the soil in which roses grow ... and it is true with regard to all the plants in your garden.

The use of a good commercial fertilizer from time to time is necessary but is not sufficient. It is important that the soil has humus in the form of steer manure, leaf mold or compost from a good, rich compost pile.

And also give the soil a mineral element product early in the summer.

For several years I have subscribed to the Lemon Grove Review and enjoyed its coverage of local news. This week I looked forward to a good article on the success of our Lemon Grove Junior High School Band at the Maytime Band Review in National City on April 30th. I was most disappointed to find none.

These children worked hard all year on their music (winning the highest rating at the City-County Music festival in the course of it) to prove themselves worthy of the community's effort to provide them with new uniforms. Service clubs, merchants, many individuals and the band members themselves worked hard to raise the money for the new uniforms which the band proudly wore in the Review.

Some people may not realize that the Maytime Band Review is not just another parade but a competition for marching bands which draws a large part of its entries from outside of this county. There were ten bands competing in the Junior High School class, most of them 7th to 9th grade Junior High Schools. Lemon Grove Junior High School has only 7th and 8th grade and includes several elementary school pupils in the band. In spite of this competition Lemon Grove took first place. Don't you think that the band, Mr. Harry Weisgerber, their director, and all the people who backed them should have some recognition?

Editor's Note: We do, indeed. Due to technical difficulties beyond our control, the story wasn't in last week. It's here now.

Dear Editor:

I read with interest last week's "Dimmer View" in which you anticipate a tax revolution. The Forand Bill, it seems, is the subject of your attack.

There is a revolution already in motion across the nation. It is against the American Medical Association, the number one opponent of the Forand Bill. It has, I feel, already won the argument of humanics, for most people now realize that socialized medicine is not renouncing responsibility as a son or daughter, but recognizing a community responsibility. After all not every aged person has responsible dependents to call on, but has to rely on a form of charity, the collectors of which go to the community for their means.

I find your argument of cost weak, when you say that the resultant effect of a Forand type bill would be fewer roads and schools, due to business men not being able to pay taxes. You fear that if a depression descends upon us all social advantages go. It is such things as social security, unemployment benefits and sick-ness benefits that will and have prevented a depression. It gives purchasing power to him who would not otherwise have it, thus keeping the spark of life for business to live on, until a recovery can be effected.

If free and unfettered enterprise is the true hope of social advantages, perhaps you can explain how they are to be gained.

Sincerely,
Colin F. McKay

Dear Editor:

When we moved here in November, I was under the impression we were in a city called Lemon Grove. How wrong I was.

Sunday we attended the official opening of the Little League at Mt. Miguel High School. (grounds)

Imagine our surprise and near horror to realize we were not in Lemon Grove, but in LEMMEON Grove. The sign proclaimed it so.

I can't imagine a native Lemon Grovian misspelling the famous name; in fact I can't imagine anyone past the first grade not knowing how to spell Lemon—little or big L.

A lady at the game said the Coca Cola company had put up the sign. What I can't understand is why it hasn't been corrected. It isn't amusing.

I was further astonished when told that this wasn't the first year the misspelled sign had been there. Tsk and more tsk!

How does one go about getting such a flagrant error corrected?

Sincerely,

WHAT'S DOING

Missiles are slowpokes ... compared to telephone service, that is. Figure it this way. An 18,000-mile-an-hour missile could fly from here to New York in about 10 minutes. But if you place a call to New York you're usually connected with the number in less than 30 seconds after dialing is completed! So even if men do someday speed about in missiles, it'll be a long time before you can beat the fastest way to visit folks far away ... by long distance telephone.

WHERE WERE YOU

.....the last time the telephone rang? In the pool?

In the garage? In the garden? Complete convenient telephone service also includes the play and hobby areas.

An extension phone in one or more of the above locations can save steps and help insure against missed calls. Mrs. Housewife also gets a helping hand by exclusion of such things as wet feet, grass clippings, sawdust and Peat moss from the house. Give us a call—the cost is low.

At least one good assemblyman is properly disturbed by the Frankenstein-like state agencies that are smothering us. Assemblyman Sheridan Hegland, in some of the strongest language ever to emanate from an office holder, attacks the State Board of Pharmacy for its "arrogant disregard of legislative will and intent."

The pharmacy board has proposed new censorship on drug store advertising. These are so oppressive that it would prevent a drug store from announcing publicly that it compounds prescriptions carefully from fresh drugs.

Such controls assure putting a ceiling on quality and superiority.

Says Hegland: "This (pharmacy board proposed controls) broadly construed, would limit both the right of free speech and free press."

"Probably it would make it impossible for a druggist to list in a telephone directory such special services as free delivery, evening hours, or specialization in prescriptions.

"For years elements associated with Pharmacy Board have sought to fix prices and censor advertising. Failing in the effort to convince the Legislature, they are seeking the same power by departmental regulations. As recently as 1959 the Legislature enacted a law making it clear this Board was not to fix prices or regulate advertising.

"Basic in our system is the right of a man to build a better mousetrap and to tell his neighbors about it. This proposed regulation, which will have the effect of law, could become a precedent to prevent or interfere with any advertising of any service whatsoever by any business subject to control through State licensing, such as beauty shops, barbers, contractors or even furniture stores.

"The proposed regulation is so broad as to be unreasonable. Specifically prohibited, is even an implication of competitive excellence. It calls into jeopardy established slogans used by concerns such as 'Friendly Store.' Use of this phrase might imply competitors were less friendly or even unfriendly. Certainly the words 'Buy and Save' or 'Quality Drug' would be illegal and punishable.

"Enforcement of this regulation if adopted would be by the State Board which would act as prosecutor, judge and jury. The State Board of Pharmacy is apparently seeking to establish a virtual dictatorship over every drugstore in every hamlet in the state in an unseemly and rash extension of governmental controls.

"The regulations could easily result in substantial increases in prices paid by consumers, and in this case, the consumers are likely to be the ill and the aged."

All of which is another way of saying that too much government hammers its citizens into mediocrity.

There will be vacancies this year on the five man board of directors of the Grossmont Hospital District.

Up for election, should they choose to run, will be R. Marvin Jackson, a real estate man, who is president of the board; Ralph A. Peterson, a merchant, secretary, and Jack C. Atkinson, an El Cajon retailer.

Homer Streich, treasurer, who once announced that newspapers had no right to know the workings of a tax-supported hospital, and Forace Boyd, a Lakeside real estate man, will face re-election next year.

Because three vacancies are occurring, it provides an ample opportunity for getting a change of faces among the directors. Whether or not this is desirable depends on what sort of operation and program has been expected at the hospital.

There are many district taxpayers who feel the taxes are too high. Others claim the fee for district residents should be lowered. There are others who think everything there is just fine.

We have stated editorially often that district residents should not be required to pay district taxes and, at the same time, be charged for the hospital's use the same rate it would be at a non-tax supported hospital. Grossmont does give small rate advantage ($2 a day) to district residents.

By comparison, a private group of physicians are building San Miguel hospital near by. The group operates Hillside Hospital in San Diego. Without a penny of tax money supporting either of the hospitals, the rates will be no higher than at Grossmont.

It seems to us that the cost-to-the-patients expenses could be lowered in ratio to the amount of tax money they collect from you and me.

Since the hospital's operation is responsive to the will of the board, it seems that dissident factions might want to encourage community leaders to seek the position through election. We think at least one board member should reside in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area since none does now.

This is an opportunity to serve the hospital district . . . and save money for all taxpayers.

The election is in November, simultaneous with the general election. Deadline for filing is September 2.

The shooting down of an unarmed American U2 jet plane by Soviet rockets, deep in Russia, has brought a crisis in world affairs.

On the other hand, the unprecedented admission by our State Department that the lost plane, and others, had been patrolling Soviet installations for a long while, is one of the more heartening developments of our world policy.

Many of us have been led to accept State's pollyanna-ish diplomatic practices as a modern world way of life—this weak and vacillating condition having its roots in the era of Dean Acheson, Alger Hiss, et al.

The admission by our government that we are now, and probably will continue, patrolling Soviet territory in the interest of peace and our own protection, certainly must be backed up by our ability to enforce this determination. No nation could be so foolhardy as to try to bluff Khrushchev and Co. nor to fool the elaborate and widespread espionage system the Soviets maintain. The fact that K. did not immediately call up the militia is good proof of our present military supremacy.

The admission, coming as it did, is a reassuring reversal of the position from what we assumed a week before when a radar equipped, Soviet trawler was observed brazenly spying on the George Washington, our newest missile-firing nuclear submarine. This took place just 60 miles south of Long Island and we allowed the trawler to proceed undamaged.

Americans had little to be proud of in this affair. Reversals over the globe in recent months had given us no reason for rejoicing. The Fidel Castro affair, the over throw of Singman Rhee, the revolt against Adnan Menderes and the unhappy plight of Chiang Kai Shek are some of the global rebuffs we are suffering. The brazen spying on the George Washington seemed to be the last straw.

The firmness with which the government announced the tit-for-tat espionage may be the turning point for us. We have been waiting a long time for the pendulum to swing toward the much desired, old-fashioned, world-respected Americanism.

INAUGURATION — In most service clubs, it's pretty hard to find anyone who wants to be president. And after a year, the president is rather eager to give up his gavel. Not so in the Lemon Grove Lions Club. Here, outgoing president Emmett Marshall, left, fights to keep gavel which new president Pete Wood, center, and John Farley, first vice president, insist on taking away from him. —Staff Photo

Junior High Unit Wins In Maytime Band Review

Attired in new uniforms, the Lemon Grove Junior High Band won first place in its division at the National City May Time Band Review. The local outfit competed against nine other junior highs. Other wins chalked up by Lemon Grove students included first place in the junior high class for the majorette team and second place for the pom pom corps.

Judging was by seven members of the Southern California School Band Judging Association. Other junior high units competing in the division topped by Lemon Grove included Chula Vista, Castle Park, Granger Sweetwater, Hilltop, Lakeside and National City, as well as the San Diego Parochial Pioneers.

The 85-piece Lemon Grove marching unit wore the snappy new uniforms purchased this spring after a community-wide drive to raise the $5,000 in funds. Harry Weisgerber, director, stated that this is the first time Lemon Grove placed first under his direction. The band is led by Darlene Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Anderson, 2814 Massachusetts Avenue. Competition was "Sound and Fury" by Harold Walters.

The winning majorette team is under the direction of Mrs. John Bell, teacher, and Mrs. Peter Dreesen, a community assistant from Spring Valley Estates. Mary Will is student leader. Second place pom pom team, directed by Florence Weller, teacher, and Mrs. Bell, is led by Vicki Jackson. Seven girls make up the first group; the pom pom team features 40.

Over 4,000 students participated in the annual event, including 40 bands and 74 units. Trophies captured by Lemon Grove are on display in the junior high office window.

Anti-Rabies Vaccination Law Passed

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—An ordinance requiring compulsory anti-rabies vaccination for all dogs in county areas and making necessary that dogs be on leashes in zoned parts of the county was passed Tuesday by the County Board of Supervisors.

The ordinance has been under consideration for some months, action was speeded up on it because San Diego has been declared a "rabies area" by the state.

Joseph Kase, deputy county counsel who drew up the ordinance, explained its terms to the Board. He said it provides for a $5 penalty for dog owners who get their licenses late, but he added that it has been suggested this be held off until Jan. 1, to speed up vaccinations now. Dogs working on ranches will be exempt from license fees, but not from vaccinations, he said.

LET US ALL PRAY TOGETHER AS A FAMILY

Christ kindles within us a yearning to be more than "one of the crowd." The approval of God is more rewarding than the approval of the crowd. As Joan of Arc says in Geo. Bernard Shaw's play, "My loneliness shall be my strength; it is better to be alone with God than loved by a multitude without Him. In his strength I will dare and dare and dare until I die."

Tiny Tots Learn Spanish in Unique Language Course at Miguel High

Mount Miguel high school students passing the room of Spanish instructor Edward Villarreal recently have paused to rub their unbelieving eyes at the sight of 19 children, ages 5-8, chattering away in Spanish.

Twice a week, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, the pint-sized ninos come to the campus for 15 to 20 minutes of concentrated work on their Spanish.

"The key to success in teaching a foreign language is the enthusiasm and the attitude of the teacher," remarked Villarreal. "We use many visual aids, props, pictures, foods, colors, animals, fruits, flowers, and familiar items; the week before Easter vacation we were teaching the word 'dulce' (candy); we used candy Easter eggs so that they could feel, see and taste as well as say the word."

Familiar phrases used in the home by the youngsters' immediate family are emphasized also. In addition, Villarreal and Miss Ann Alderson, who aids in the teaching of the class, constantly stress domestic pets and animals known to the children.

"We believe that by utilizing their experience they are able to learn faster. They've also learned the basic numbers in Spanish; their pronunciation is excellent. Since they have no bad language habits, it has been to their advantage to learn the proper sounds. By using the multi-sensory approach, we are trying to teach them Spanish through their sense of taste, sense of feeling, as well as sight and their audio-acoustics, which at this time of their lives are so sharp," Villarreal said.

Villarreal continued, "The ever nascent intellectual and social dynamics of our community lie within the fertile minds of our children. They—our children—are the very heart, strength and security of our country. Our investment in their future demands every valuable opportunity for their intellectual as well as for their spiritual growth. The opportunity given to them to learn another language gives them that extra advantage in understanding their fellow men a little better within their lifetime. Being able to communicate with others will be the key to a better understanding of other peoples and their cultures and the establishment of greater human relations which, in the main, will be the cornerstone for peace. What greater legacy can we give them?"

Children participating in the program and their ages are: Nancy Meyer, 6; Patty Meyer, 5; Jackie Hurtt, 6; Marcy Meyer, 7; Rickey Malek, 5; Toni Thibbeault, 8; Jeanne Nystedt, 8; Linda Moxey, 8; Laurie Moxey, 5; Julie Kay Skinner, 6; Kenny Szuch, 5; Linky Szuch, 7; Scott Brocker, 7; Robert Jackson, 7; John Nystedt, 7; Pat McCarthy,

District High School Pupil Cost Under Average, Says Smith

A study of comparative costs in large high school districts for 1953-54 school year indicated that the GUHSD cost per pupil was $414 as compared with the state average of $493. These were a part of a research study on comparative costs presented to the governing board at a recent meeting.

The District ranked 22 in assessed valuation per pupil among the 23 largest high school districts in the state and 22nd in current expenditures for education. Superintendent Lewis Smith pointed out that salaries paid in the district ranked well above the average, but the teaching loads were also heavy. The District's business administration indicated below average cost for operation and maintenance.

A progress report of the faculty salary committee called for consideration of salary schedules which would provide a maximum salary double that for the beginning. Presentation of a progress report by the faculty salary committee chairman, John Wilton indicated that no definite plan had been developed thus far. The Board was invited to join with the committee in consideration of all of the problems involved. A meeting was set for Tuesday evening, May 3.

The Board received a report showing that provision of a group major medical insurance plan for faculty and classified employees of the Grossmont Union High School District would cost $5.92 per employee per month if a plan patterned after that provided by the San Diego Unified School District were to be adopted. The cost estimate was received from the Equitable Life Assurance Company. After considerable discussion, the Board referred the matter back to the faculty committee for recommendations as to specific variations which might be desirable in the plan as submitted. If a plan is ultimately approved, other companies will be invited to submit proposals.

Strawberries Buried, Complains Grove Woman

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Mrs. Wilbur L. Will, Lemon Grove, told the Board of Supervisors last week that her strawberry bed is under six inches of hardpan as a result of sewer construction and she wants something done about it.

Her rose hedge also was damaged as well as flower borders of the strawberry bed, she said. Mrs. Will said the damage was inflicted when the county laid a sewer line from Waite drive to King street. She wants the hardpan removed.

placed with top soil and "something," she didn't say what, done about the rose hedge which was four feet tall when workmen trimmed it nearly to ground, telling her it would grow back.

In addition, Mrs. Will told the Board she had paid $143 to have her lot surveyed shortly before the sewer work was done and that now the stakes were lost or pulled up.

The public works department was ordered to investigate.

TRAILER LAW

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A public hearing on an ordinance to control trailer park conditions is to be held in late July. The County Board of Supervisors ordered the hearing Tuesday, when Dr. J. B. Askew, county health officer, reported that a committee of trailer park representatives and county officials had finished a year of work on a new law.

County Budget Hearings Now Underway

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Public hearings on the county's preliminary budget calling for a record-breaking $79,910,463 to be spent in the coming fiscal year, began Monday before the County Board of Supervisors.

In its first day, the Board lopped more than $400,000 from the budget, by deciding to use Retirement Board funds to build a proposed branch welfare building in San Diego.

The proposed budget, submitted by T. M. Heggland, chief administrative officer, calls for $9 million more in spending than last year. Pay increase of $1,779,884 are provided, as recommended by the County Civil Service Commission. This boost compares with the $2,867,893 asked by representatives of employees.

Heggland also slashed deeply into the requests made by department heads. Their claims of their needs would have resulted in a budget of $84,338,333.

The biggest boost, more than $2 million, is in welfare needs, where $21,836,610 is being budgeted. Of this, $18,905,599 will be repaid to the county from state and federal sources.

The welfare burden is expected to rise in the coming year, Heggland stated in his report. He said plans are for taking care of 1,700 general welfare cases per month, compared with the provisions for only 1,192 cases per month a year ago.

Supervisors will hold hearings on the preliminary budget for the rest of the week. Hearings on the final budget are slated for late June, and a budget has been adopted by July 1.

The tax rate will not be set until late summer, but Heggland has indicated that there may not be a tax boost, despite the higher budget. This is due to the expanding San Diego economy, with the resulting increase in revenues.

'New' Noble's Market Sets Grand Opening

"Grand opening" celebration is being marked this week at Noble's Market, Sweetwater and Jamacha rds.

The market was purchased three weeks ago by John Barnes and Joseph Jewett, well-known area market operators. The partners have been restocking and revamping the market since that time and the opening event is in readiness.

The firm will feature "chain store" prices but will feature personal service. Only the top name brands will be stocked.

The market, well-known for quality meats, will continue the same policy in the meat department.

Orange stamps will be given with all purchases. Double stamps will be given with purchases of more than $10.

The firm will conduct its buying operations through the A. M. Lewis Co., a co-operative buying agency. This gives the market the purchasing power of Five full-time employees are employed and the market will be open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily including Sunday.

Church Family Finally Has Boy Baby

The "first" boy baby was born to the Rev. and Mrs. Donald B. Cooke Tuesday at Grossmont Hospital. He is minister of the Lemon Grove Methodist church.

According to Dr. Tom Early, who delivered the child, mother and son are fine.

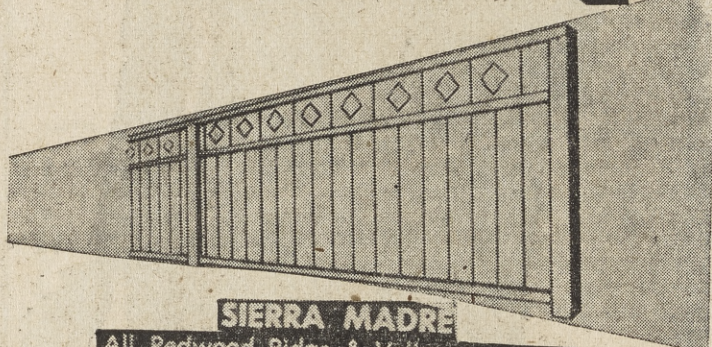

The Cooke family has three other children, all girls.

The couple had not anticipated a boy, according to Mr. Cooke, and consequently did not have a boy's name picked out.

The doctor opined that the arrival of a boy "messed up" the children's bedroom arrangement."

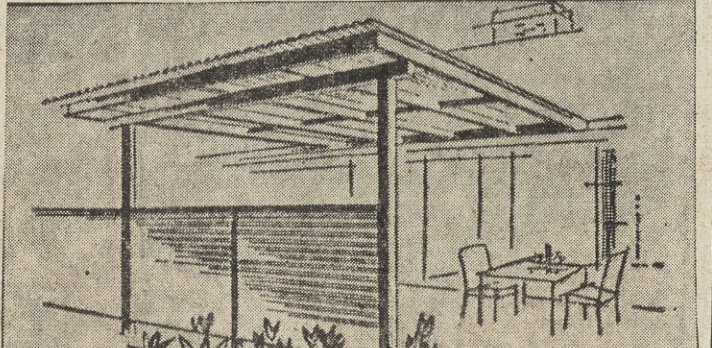

The family lives at 3185 Washington st., in Lemon Grove.

Christian Science

Why spiritualism of thought is essential to the peace and progress of mankind will be explained at all Christian Science services on Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Mortals and Immortals" is the Golden Text from Romans (8:6), "To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."

In a Bible passage to be read from John's Gospel (3:3, 6, 7) Jesus tells Nicodemus, "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. . . . That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."

A citation included in the sermon from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" gives these words of assurance by Mary Baker Eddy, "Progress takes off human shackles."

Walker Scott Co. Receives National Retailer Award

Walker Scott Company on Friday received the Retailer of The Year award, the nation's top recognition for department stores.

The Brand Names Foundation presented the award to George A. Scott at the foundation's 12th annual awards banquet in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York.

The Retailer of The Year award, first of its kind to be captured by a San Diego department store, is the national "grand prize" of the retailing industry. Walker Scott Company has won two previous certificates of distinction in the competition and last year won second place among all other stores of its class in the United States.

Basis for the award is overall excellence in merchandising and promotion of brand name goods, training of sales personnel, relationship with manufacturers, corporate citizenship and community relations. Walker Scott Company presently operates in two locations, Walker Scott downtown at Fifth and Broadway and Stevenson's at La Jolla. A third store will be opened in July at College Grove Center.

Mt. Miguel Sophomore Wins Photo Contest

Bernard Roddam, Mount Miguel high school sophomore, captured the sweepstakes prize Friday in the school's first photography contest sponsored by El Trovador, the school newspaper.

The contest consisted of three divisions, candid, children, teenagers, and adults; animal shots; and stills. Prizes were given for first, second, and third-place winners in each division.

The winning sweepstakes picture was a candid shot of an elderly man seated in the glow of a fireplace holding a pet Siamese cat. Bernard shot his prize-winner with a 2 1/4 x 2 1/4 press camera, on Royal Pan film using a time exposure.

"This shot indicates careful, thoughtful composition and a nice sense of mood," remarked Mr. Fred Wolfe, Lemon Grove portrait photographer, who acted as one of the contest judges. Art Melbourne, manager of the Lemon Grove Camera Shop, commented, "This photographer has managed to catch the affinity between man and cat beautifully."

Brown-haired blue-eyed Ber exulted when he learned of his prize: a 35mm Century camera, donated by the Lemon Grove Camera Shop.

He also was first-place winner in the still division, exhibiting a character study of a shack roof and lantern. For this he used a Kodak Jr. with Panatomic-X film, shooting 1/100 with an f/16 aperture.

Sue Estes placed first in the candid division with a picture of a small girl wistfully chewing on the stem of a dandelion as she sat on the grass. The Miguel senior used a Roliflex loaded with Verichrome Pan film and shot at f/8, 1/30.

A Baby Brownie, loaded with 127 film, won first place for Alan McCune, Miguel junior, with his picture of a white duck lying on its back.

Books as prizes for first, second, and third-place winners in each division were donated by Eastman Kodak Company: "How to Take Good Pictures," "How to Take Good Home Movies," and "Adventures in Color Slides."

Along Sweetwater Road News of Spring Valley Estates, Mt. Miguel Terrace and La Presa

Community leaders in Spring Valley Estates-Mt. Miguel Terrace area have finished plans for a giant family field day and potluck dinner at Avondale school.

They have promised "the time of your community life," this Saturday starting at 3:30 p.m. and continuing "far into the evening, courtesy of the Avondale PTA."

Field day events, entertainment and a pot luck dinner are on tap. The field day events will consist of mother and daughter egg and spoon races, father and son three-legged sack races, 40 yard dash for children of all age groups and a big balloon breaking contest.

Entertainment will start with Poze, the Clown, who will be around most of the evening, and then starting at 6:30 p.m. there will be a square dance exhibition, a demonstration by the La Mesa Recreation Center Tumbling Team, music by the Mt. Miguel High School Pep Band, and Alvon and his country cousins in three not so original comedy skits.

There is no charge for food and entertainment. The "admission ticket" is the food that each family brings for the potluck dinner. Here's how it works: Families whose names begin with: A through E bring 1 pound of hot dogs; F through I bring beans, enough for eight; J through M bring salad and dressing separated; N through T bring hot dog rolls, 8 or more; U through Z brings cakes or pies. Beverages will be sold for five cents.

On May 17 at 7:30 p.m., the Avondale School will be the scene of the final PTA meeting of this school year, and should prove to be the biggest and the best.

The program, "Achievement and Recognition Night," will consist of the installation of new officers for the 1960-1961 school year, following which the Avondale PTA, as "Mother Organization," will display its offspring. All the mothers, fathers, boys and girls who have helped organize and work for the various community groups sponsored by Avondale PTA, such as Brownies, Cub, Girl and Boy Scouts, Little League and

High Enrollment Anticipated for Junior College

Initial enrollment of 409 seniors and 1250 adults at a local community junior college if one is authorized through an election scheduled for next November was indicated in a report submitted to the Grossmont union high school district board of trustees Monday night.

In presenting the results of questionnaires answered by members of graduating classes in 5 high schools and by 2/3 of those enrolled in adult education classes in the Grossmont district, Superintendent Lewis Smith said, "While these results are not conclusive, there is every indication of sufficient enrollment to provide a strong instructional program right from the start of operations. Earlier estimates had indicated a beginning enrollment of 500 full time students."

Edna Weaver Dies After Long Illness

Mrs. Alvin L. (Edna) Weaver, 49, died Saturday in a hospital after a lingering illness.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Conrad's Lemon Grove mortuary. Burial was to follow in Glen Eden memorial park in Detroit.

Mrs. Weaver, who lived at 561 Billow dr., in Lomita Village, is survived by her husband, Alvin; two daughters, Marsha Weaver and Joyce Sumner; three grandchildren, a brother and a sister.

She was a member of the Lemon Grove Business Women's League, formerly owned a self-serve laundry in downtown Lemon Grove, and until her illness operated the Real Ice Cream parlor on Imperial avenue. She was a charter member of the Soroptimist club.

Student Wins Encyclopedia

A new set of encyclopedia occupies a bookcase at the home of Gary Reid, 1690 Colfax, Lemon Grove, as a result of Gary's interest in science. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Reid, Gary, who is a fourth grade student at Monterey Heights, submitted a winning question to a national newspaper columnist for juniors.

His question, in the area of science, stems from Gary's sincere interest in that field. Encouraged by his home and school, Gary has read at least 25 books on science. He is always interested in his special field, astronomy, which he studies at school. Gary shows promise in other subjects, also. His principal, Arthur Thomas, reports that he is in an accelerated math class at Monterey Heights School.

To Participate In Institute

LIBERTY, Mo., (Spcl.)—Kenneth K. Knapp of 1434 Janice, Spring Valley, science teacher at O'Farrell Junior High, San Diego, will participate in William Jewell College's second summer institute, on the campus in Liberty, June 6-July 29.

Dr. Frank G. Edison, director, has announced. The institute is sponsored jointly by the College and the National Science Foundation.

Sixty-five junior and senior high school teachers from the Midwest will participate in this year's program. The institute is designed to provide supplementary training for teachers of biology, chemistry, and physics, and to offer advanced training for those who have completed academic work in the same subjects. The National Science Foundation provides stipends sufficient to pay all expenses, including travel, and support of dependents for the eight weeks.
